

The Alternative Education Program provides students the opportunity to appropriately process their issues with guidance from staff. Resolution of behavioral and emotional conflict improves students' capacity to participate in the educational program.