What is IPS?

• An evidence-based model of supported employment for people with serious mental health conditions

• Helps people work at regular jobs of their choosing
IPS Principles

- Anyone who wants to work
- Competitive employment
- Rapid job search
- Targeted job development
- Client preferences
- Individualized long-term supports
- Integrated with treatment
- Benefits counseling
Research from 28 RCTs

• All employment outcomes improve
  • Job, tenure, hours, wages, satisfaction
  • 2 or 3 times greater

• Other outcomes related to employment:
  • Income, mental health service use, self-esteem, quality of life, community integration
Competitive Employment Rates in 28 Randomized Controlled Trials of IPS
Predictors of Employment

• All groups do better in IPS

• Age, gender, race, diagnosis, symptoms, co-occurring substance disorder, homelessness, disability status, rurality, country
New Target Conditions

- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- Spinal cord injury
- Common mental disorders
- Substance use disorders
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Justice system involvement
- Recent immigrants

- Transition-age youth
- Health Space
- Autism spectrum disorder
- Intellectual disability
- Disability denials
- Pain syndromes
Why is IPS effective?

• Consumer preference design
• Research undergirding
• Foundation and government support
• International learning community
IPS Learning Community: 2000-2020

- Mission: Increase access to IPS supported employment for people with serious mental illness
- 3 pilot sites in 2000
- 24 states and 6 other countries in 2019
- Over 400 programs in US and 100 elsewhere
- 40,000 clients served in 2019
- Other collaborators: Virginia, New York, many other states, 12 additional countries
IPS Learning Community

- State/country leadership partners: Mental Health (MH) and Vocational Rehabilitation (VR)
- Two-tiered structure: leadership and training
- Data sharing and analysis
- IPS Center: education, training, technical assistance, fidelity
- Face-to-face meetings
- Research opportunities
Clients Served and Working in the IPS Supported Employment Learning Community in the US

Quarterly employment rate for October-December 2019: 45.2% (exceeds 41% benchmark for good outcome)

Data points represent annual averages for four quarterly reporting periods. Current year data represent an average of reporting periods that have occurred to date.

Tennessee’s IPS Journey
From Mountain City to Memphis
How did Tennessee get started?
Collaboration

TDMHSAS

DHS- VR

Community Partners
Tennessee began IPS in October 2013 with four pilot sites: Frontier Health, Helen Ross McNabb Ridgeview in East Tennessee and Park Center.

This pilot was a joint venture between the Tennessee Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services and the Department of Human Services, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation. They continue to provide funding and support for agencies throughout the state.

The IPS Trainer Program was also established to provide technical assistance and support to agencies implementing the model, as well as lead the fidelity review process in the state.
How far we have come?

2013
4 Sites
1 Trainer

2021
14 Agencies
21 IPS Teams
3 Trainers

8 Years

Tennessee’s IPS Communities
Where are we now?

- Currently have 14 partnering agencies with 21 IPS programs
- IPS is in all seven VR and nine TDMHSAS Regions
- FEPI, Healthy Transitions, CHR-P, and Juvenile Justice Reform grant programs help young adults find employment and/or education
- Tennessee is a member of the International IPS Learning Community
- Two agencies are a part of a national Social Security Administration study
- One TN IPS agency is part of the NextGen study
IPS fidelity in Tennessee

Agencies that utilize the IPS model must follow the guidelines of the IPS fidelity scale and participate in regular fidelity reviews that monitor quality assurance and program implementation.

Aligning with fidelity is a requirement for all agencies that implement an evidence-based practice.

The IPS Trainers and a team of reviewers visit the agency to learn more about the program, interview stakeholders, observe meetings and job development, review program data and client charts.

Agencies receive a fidelity report that examines areas in which the agency is doing well and areas of needed growth.

Research shows that agencies that better align with fidelity have better client outcomes.
