Considerations for the journey -

- Layers of the framework developed now to ensure
  - Systemic and not person/role dependent
  - Systemic and not able to be undone by one or more powerful people without high visibility and discomfort
  - Enough is started deep enough that fads coming and going can’t create atrophy

- Data – we must develop a dashboard structure for internal and external efforts.
  - To create traction to keep the attention where it needs to be to further true and deep change in dismantling structural racism and inequity.

- Intentional exploration and consultation on how dismantling racism efforts translate into how state government is operated
Thank you!
