Throughout the organization, staff and the people they serve, whether children or adults, should feel physically and psychologically safe.
Who Defines Safety?

For people who use services:

- “Safety” generally means maximizing control over their own lives.

For providers:

- “Safety” generally means maximizing control over the service environment and minimizing risk.
Interpersonal Communication

- Interpersonal interactions should promote a sense of safety.
- What are some ways you ensure interactions that promote a sense of safety?
Reflection Points

- Do staff feel safe in your organization?
  - Why or why not?
- Do the people served feel safe?
  - How do you know?
- What changes could be made to address safety concerns?
Principle 2: Trustworthiness and Transparency

Organizational operations and decisions are conducted with transparency and the goal of building and maintaining trust among clients, family members, staff, and others involved with the organization.
Examples of Trustworthiness

- Making sure people really understand their options
- Being authentic
- Directly addressing limits to confidentiality
