

Arizona
California
District of Columbia
Florida
Iowa
Louisiana
Mississippi
North Carolina
Oregon

Pennsylvania

Tennessee
Washington State

Ducey Executive Order 2020-07 allows ADHS to waive licensing requirements to provide healthcare officials with assistance in delivering services during times of heightened demand.

Newsom March 4, 2020 Emergency Proclamation

Mayor's Order 2020-052, Section 5a. \(March 23, 2020\)

DeSantis Executive Order 20-52, Section 7 \(March 9, 2020\)

State of Iowa Proclamation of Disaster Emergency, Sections 9 & 10 \(March 17, 2020\)

Bel Edwards Proclamation 25 JBE 2020 \(March 11, 2020\)

Mississippi State Board of Medical Licensure Emergency License Attestation Form

Cooper Executive Order No. 116 Section 16

Oregon Temporary Administrative Order DMAP7-2020 Paragraph \(7\) \(March 15, 2020\)

Pennsylvania Department of State Notice: Pennsylvania Authorizes Licensed Health Care Professionals to Provide Services

Tennessee Executive Order No. 14, Section 2 \(March 12, 2019\)

Washington Medical Commission Announcement: Emergency Health Practitioners Act \(March 12, 2020\)